MRS. SUMMER GOODS: You are hereby notified that you must vacate the premises occupied by you and your family on or before September 15.

In reply to your request to carry you until next season to save you the humiliation of being forced upon the public, we would like to comply with your wishes, in appreciation of the services rendered by your departed ones, but you are more likely to find favor with the public now than next season; and besides our buyers are already making arrangements with Mrs. Winter Goods for the occupancy of your quarters, and you must realize that after the 15th prox. she deserves the preference.

We trust you will see the justice of our position, and find consolation in the thought that you are simply irresistible at the prices we have put on you.

The business and professional men of Iola have signed an agreement to close their places of business from 12 to 4 on Sept. 13 and 14, in order that everybody may attend the Fair and hear the distinguished speakers who will be present on that day. It is a loyal thing to do.

For instance, Mrs. Chas. Rogers, of Bay City, Mich., accidentally spilled scalding water over her little boy. She promptly applied DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, giving instant relief. It is a wonderfully good salve for burns, bruises, sores, and a sure cure for piles. Cowan & Ausherman.

Charlie Cole, a prominent farmer of Elm township, got his left hand caught in the cogs of a corn sheller on Tuesday and crushed so badly that Drs. Fulton and Chastain, who were called, found it necessary to amputate it at the wrist. It was a very distressing accident and Mr. Cole's many friends are deeply grieved.

A. B. Mull, Superintendent of the Sheep Department of the Iola Fair, asks the Registrar to request all who expect to show sheep at the Fair to write to him at Iola and advise him how many they expect to bring. It is important that this request be complied with, so that all the pens may be provided that are required.

Last Friday while W. H. DeHart was roasting peanuts in his gasoline roaster the fire went out allowing some of the oil to escape, and when he lighted it again the fire flashed out in his face burning his nose and cheeks and eyelids and singeing his eyebrows and moustache. He is now out of danger but the burns are very painful.

To the credit of the directors of our Fair be it said, they refused to admit any gambling devices inside the fair grounds; but to the shame of the rest of us in the city various gambling devices are run on in the streets without molestation.

It is commonly reported that not only the gambling devices but the joints were "wide open," at Moran last week. We trust, and believe, that a similar reproach cannot be cast upon us during the Iola Fair.

The sharp eyes of Harry Bassett, our official correspondent, have seen about everything there was to see at the Moran Fair and his ready pencil has reported it faithfully to the readers of the REGISTER. The REGISTER is the only paper outside of Iola that has given any mention to this Fair which is one of the most important events of the year in the county.

Topeka Breeze: The county of Allen which was organized in 1855 was named in honor of William Allen of Ohio. The most noted thing about Allen was his cow. He could roar like one of the bulls of Bashan. On this account he got the name of Feghorn Allen. The fact that the distinguished congressman from Allen county has long held part of the same title may be regarded as a coincidence.

Those who want to take instruction in German under Prof. Reimer are hereby notified that a meeting for the purpose of organizing a class and beginning work will be held at the Reading room, on the corner of Second and Main streets, on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All who desire to begin work with the class, or to consult with the Professor about tuition in any other language, should be present at this meeting without fail.

Mrs. Nettie Wise and daughters went Monday to Emporia where they are to be engaged in the Presbyterian College as heretofore mentioned. Mrs. Wise and other talented children have been valued factors in the social life of Iola for a number of years, and they will be greatly missed, particularly in the Presbyterian church and Sunday school where they have been constant and active workers.

The sincere good wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

The barn on the old Colborn place, north of the square, now owned by C. Newton, was discovered to be on fire at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and in three or four minutes it was a pile of ruins. The loss to Mr. Newton will be something over $100, partly covered by $50 insurance. Mr. Graham's loss will be about the same and no insurance. Both appreciate greatly the efforts of the people to save their property.

Do not suffer with pain on top of the head and in the back when Dr. Sawyer's Pastilles will positively cure you. Sold by J. H. Campbell.

Everything considered there was a large audience at the Fry Concert at the Opera House last Saturday night. Ma dame Fry and her daughters are pleasing, although not exceptional musicians, and their audience was well entertained. It is not too much to say, however, that the two numbers on the program the most enjoyed were the piano solo by Miss Richards and the reading by Miss Welch. The audience testified its appreciation and its pride by giving both young ladies a hearty recall.

The commissioners went up to Deer Creek Monday to look after the crops of the Indian bride which is being built at the Wise crossing. The work is progressing rather slowly, and it will probably be a month yet before the bridge is ready for travel. But when it is once finished it is there to stay, and the money that it cost is all left in the county.

The Commissioners visited the poor farm also and found it in excellent condition, with a fine show for crops. There are only four paupers there.

A cheap rate excursion will leave Iola Sunday Sept. 8, via the Santa Fe. This is the farewell excursion of the season to Kansas City. The train reaches Kansas City early enough to give everybody a full day in the city. We wish to call your attention to the last Sunday championship base ball game between Kansas City and Grand Rapids and the wild west troops of the Indian bride at Fairmount Park. This latter attraction is drawing great crowds and is well worth seeing. R. A. Edgar, agt.

National Encampment G. A. R. Pittsburg, Pa., September 10 to 15th 1894. For the above named meeting the Mo. Pac. Ry. will sell round trip tickets from Iola at a rate of $22.70. Tickets to be sold Sept. 7 and 8. Limit to return Sept. 28th. Lines east of St. Louis will allow one stop over at any point selected by passenger. Only 36 hours required for the entire trip, via this line from Iola to Pittsburg. Passengers will also have advantage in buying their chairs in cars through. R. S. Happersett, Agt.

Mr. Thomas Bate, editor of the Graphic, Topeka, Kansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Evans Bros.

Parson Peterkin: And so, Old Man, it was you, and not the boys, who needed to be warned against the "sure thing" games at the circus. The boys read what I said and kept away, but you went up and bit—and got caught! You knew it was a skin game, but you thought you could beat it. You thought you would be the skinner and not the skinned. O, you are so smart! You thought you knew exactly where that little pea was. You thought you knew better than the man who put it there. You thought he was going around the country gathering money from suckers for the benefit of the poor men like you. You thought he was an Innocent Abroad, and you would just show him how easy a Man Who Knows It All could "do" him. You would just show him that you were not as big a fool as you looked. And you did it, didn't you? Did it to the Queen's taste—and anywhere from $20 to $50 worth! And the worst of it is Old Man, nobody sympathizes with you. You were trying to beat him just as hard as he was trying to beat you. If you had got his money you would have thought it was pretty tough if he had called up the police and pleaded the baby act and said you robbed him and made you disgorge. That is the way everybody looks at it and so instead of sympathizing with you for just giving you the "horse laugh." It's pretty tough I know. But when you get over hurting you will feel that way yourself.

The letters from our county correspondents will be found on the last page of this issue, and we expect to continue to print them there hereafter. The "All Over the County" department of the REGISTER has grown so that it now includes reports from nearly every neighborhood in the county, and we have found it necessary to give it a whole page, or so much thereof as may be necessary. We believe our county readers especially will approve this change, because it enables us to print the letters of our correspondents in full, and also to set the different items in paragraphs which makes easier reading. This change also leaves more room on the fourth page for local news and will give us an opportunity to materially strengthen that feature of the paper. Of course this means more type setting and therefore greater expense, but we trust that it will also mean greater appreciation on the part of our patrons and therefore greater returns to our exchequer. It will be noticed that another change is made also this week, and that is in attaching to each news letter the name of the writer. Our correspondents have consented to this change, and we have made the request believing that it would materially assist them in gathering the news to have their identity known. It adds greatly to the interest of every reader of the REGISTER in any given neighborhood to have the news of his neighborhood fully reported. We would especially request therefore that our county patrons co-operate with the reporter for their neighborhood to the end that the news may all find its way into these columns. Any assistance that may be rendered will be cordially appreciated not only by the reporters, but by the editor of the REGISTER also.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to several mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnston, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be overpraised and cheerfully recommend it. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Evans Bros.

One word describes it—"perfection." We refer to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles. Cowan & Ausherman.

If your gasoline stove doesn't work just right get Billy Bartels to overhaul it.

GOODS THAT STAND INSPECTION

In as large a stock as ours it always happens that the end of the summer season finds us with hundred of remnants and odds and ends of all kinds that are just as good as they ever were but that we would rather sell at cost or below than to carry over. This is especially true in Dress Goods, of which we have only a few yards left—enough for a child's frock or for a plain dress—in scores of patterns. There are two or three lines of shoes, also, that we do not intend to carry any longer and we have a few sizes left that we will make special prices on. We must clear up to make room for our Fall and Winter Stock, and so for the next four weeks we will offer rare bargains in the lines mentioned. Come and see if there is not something you want.
